

Chapter 2

Legal Capacity of Children

15-2-1 Period of minority.

The period of minority extends in males and females to the age of 18 years; but all minors obtain their majority by marriage. It is further provided that courts in divorce actions may order support to age 21.

Amended by Chapter 39, 1975 General Session

15-2-2 Liability for necessities and on contracts -- Disaffirmance.

A minor is bound not only for reasonable value of necessities but also by his contracts, unless he disaffirms them before or within a reasonable time after he attains his majority and restores to the other party all money or property received by him by virtue of said contracts and remaining within his control at any time after attaining his majority.

No Change Since 1953

15-2-3 Limitation on right to disaffirm.

No contract can be thus disaffirmed in cases where, on account of the minor's own misrepresentations as to his majority or from his having engaged in business as adult, the other party had good reason to believe the minor capable of contracting.

No Change Since 1953

15-2-4 Payment for personal services.

When a contract for the personal services of a minor has been made with him alone, and those services are afterward performed, payment made therefor to such minor in accordance with the terms of the contract is a full satisfaction for those services, and the parent or guardian cannot recover therefor a second time.
